A fan wrote to say that today the account received an email saying that it was complained of infringement by the GBC rogue law firm, and last month I placed an order for canvas shoes similar to the Converse logo in the store, I have seen the picture, it is a circle, in fact, the similarity is not high, but it was ordered, and I received a TRO notice, what should I do

First of all, GBC will place an order only if it is fully sure that your product is infringing, and the address is Chicago, IL, such as:

Name : Stanton Daffin
 ADDRESS : 300 S WACKER DR STE 2500
 City : CHICAGO
 State : IL
 Country : United States
 Zip Code : 60606-6771

In short, before the shipment, when you see such an address, you have to react instinctively, this is likely to be a phishing address, be careful

In fact, after they place an order successfully, there will be information retained at that time, at this time to delete the product will not help, if you have not yet shipped, directly cancel the order, or send other things, change the United States station to vacation mode, if after a month or two, you withdraw normally, and did not receive TRO mail (temporarily freeze store funds), then open the United States station on the line of sales, so the most secure, if you have multiple stores, take one of the stores to sell those products that often issue orders with themselves

If you have received a TRO notice, then you can only go to a lawyer to settle, lawyer fees, settlement fees, the store can be saved, just a wave of heavy bleeding, if the store does not have much money, basically ignore it, the site will be scrapped, don't have illusions, and then sell, no matter how many orders you make, there is no settlement, and no matter how much money you have, you can't withdraw it. #亚马逊跨境电商#

Strategies against GBC's phishing: The most important thing is to conduct professional infringement exclusion before product listing!!

cdAmazon

Features and patterns of GBC's phishing accounts:

1. If the buyer has a high level but there is no record on comments and the ID or recipient includes Wholesale, this is a warning sign;
2. The addresses are mostly in Illinois (IL) with postal codes starting with 606, such as 60601, 60604, and 60606;
3. The seller's PayPal account is requested with various excuses.

Summary of List of Phishers (Added 71-80)

When law firms in Illinois, New York, and Florida for plaintiffs act as agents in trademark right protection cases, they usually employ specialized investigation companies to investigate the evidence of infringement by cross-border e-commerce providers, and the most common means they use is to obtain evidence via fake inquiry, placing purchase orders for actual shopping and other phishing methods or to obtain the seller's payment collection account. Once the brand owners become aware of the payment collection account, they will immediately file a trademark infringement lawsuit with the court, requesting the court to issue a restraining order to restrict the seller's payment collection account.

Based on the cases we have worked for in recent years, the vast majority of sellers have been sued due to phishing, which caused unbearable troubles for the sellers. The plaintiff's buyer IDs are diversified, which makes it difficult for the sellers to take counter measures. For example, the most common recipient address is 230 S Clark St., Ste 552 Chicago, IL 60604-1406 United States Tel: +1-8473451332; Tel: +1-3126528973, and the buyer names using this address include Davie Ash, Jake Kennedy, Evelyn Wholesale, Caleb Wholesale, Joey Wholesale, Heldi Wholesale, Ruby Wholesale, Christy Potter, Samuel Wholesale, Cathy Masterson, and others. In order to help e-commerce providers identify "fake buyers" and prevent being sued, we have compiled the following summary of list of phishers, hoping it to be helpful to e-commerce providers.

Summary of Fishing Forensics Addresses of Law firms in the United States

Special Topped Posting from Independent Sites

Recently, U.S. law firms have been actively conducting fishing forensics, and sellers' payment accounts may be subject to TROs (Temporary Restraining Orders). It is recommended to block high-risk regions, such as Illinois and Florida, for products suspected of infringement.

Recently, U.S. law firms have been going crazy.

If your payment account is subject to a TRO, it's quite troublesome. For US$80,000, you may still hire a lawyer to negotiate a settlement, but if the amount is smaller, it's not even worth the attorney's fee. What would you do then?

So, for those selling potentially infringing products, remember to block high-risk regions like Illinois, Florida, etc.

How to block?

1. Don't select high-risk regions when setting ad targeting.
2. Cloak the website to block IPs from those regions.
3. Order review: pass on orders from high-risk regions.

Here are some fishing forensics addresses of law firms in the United States collected and compiled from online sources, shared for your reference:

Choose to settle or defend the lawsuit? Ultimately, it depends on how to minimize all loss expenses.

Mai Xiaotian discusses infringement

For stores with limited frozen funds, there's no need to seek settlement (if you're not planning to keep the store)

About Case Settlement

1. For stores with limited frozen funds, there's no need to seek settlement (if you're not planning to keep the store).

First, it's important to clarify that under normal circumstances, the minimum settlement amount for each case is typically between 1,800 and 2,000 USD, plus additional costs such as attorney's fees. Therefore, if the frozen amount is relatively small, it's not recommended to pursue a settlement. If you refuse to settle but have already received a payout, in most cases, the law firm will not be able to obtain a default judgment within about three months, and the issue will likely end there.

However, if you don't want to give up your store, you must accept the settlement. For instance, the GBC law firm may initiate a second freeze to pressure you into covering the judgment amount, and they can withdraw all the funds from your account. So, if you wish to continue operating, you need to settle as soon as possible, or you'll end up losing more. Other law firms generally advise against settling as well because the settlement costs will certainly exceed the frozen funds in the store. However, if the plaintiff's law firm is Keith Law Firm, you may choose to settle, and there's a high chance of reducing your losses. Ultimately, it's best to analyze each case individually, weigh the pros and cons, and try to minimize the losses.

2. If the frozen amount is large, it's recommended to settle or respond to the lawsuit.

If the frozen amount is significant, the settlement amount will be proportional to the original amount, but this can be more passive. This option results in lower losses compared to completely giving up, or you can choose to respond to the lawsuit. Depending on the case, some special cases can achieve zero compensation or even have the plaintiff compensate the seller's losses.

3. Can you still settle after a default judgment?

GBC Law Firm: In general, the firm accepts settlements at any stage, but the difference lies in the settlement amount. For sellers who have experienced a second freeze, the settlement amount is based on all the funds in the seller's frozen account. If the seller has not experienced a second freeze, the settlement amount is based on the initial frozen amount. Therefore, it's still advisable to weigh the pros and cons and make a decision as soon as possible, making full use of time and information to minimize losses. If you decide to settle, start negotiations early; if you choose to forgo settlement, prepare to close the store promptly.

Keith Law Firm: The firm has a specific time frame for accepting settlements, usually within three months after the default judgment. However, in addition to settlement, it's possible to negotiate with them, and as long as you follow the correct legal procedures, you can ensure the safety of your account to a certain extent.

SMG Law Firm: The firm accepts settlement requests after a judgment, but the settlement amount will be much higher than the previously determined settlement amount.

4. Detailed and comprehensive settlement process.

Generally, once the seller and the lawyer reach a settlement agreement, the settlement agreement will be transferred by the law firm to the defendant seller or their attorney. The defendant seller then needs to sign and return it to the plaintiff's law firm, which also needs to sign and return it. After the defendant seller pays the settlement amount, the plaintiff needs to submit a case withdrawal letter to the court to withdraw the claims. Finally, the withdrawal letter will be sent to the defendant, completing the settlement process.

5. What constitutes a successful settlement?

A successful settlement means that both documents are sent to the seller: the settlement agreement and the case withdrawal letter.

The settlement agreement needs to be signed by both parties, and the withdrawal letter needs to be issued by the court. Only when these two documents are fully issued does the seller have a legal basis for future appeals, such as discrepancies in the settlement amount, a second freeze, or another lawsuit. Therefore, only after both documents are issued is the settlement truly considered successful.

6. Different settlement timeframes and account safety periods with various law firms?

Based on past case handling, the settlement timeframe for Keith Law Firm is the shortest, while GBC Law Firm takes the longest.

Generally, the account safety period is maintained after the successful signing of the settlement agreement. If there is a discrepancy in the settlement amount before and after the agreement, legal procedures can be used to recover the funds. However, it is essential to continue with the fixed legal procedures afterward. It is crucial to request signed documents from the plaintiff's lawyer, as these documents can serve as a basis for appeals in case of any issues.

Regarding Responding to Lawsuits

The process of responding to lawsuits in the U.S. is similar to that in China, with a straightforward procedure: the defendant's attorney submits the relevant legal documents, and appears in court to defend the defendant. However, in the U.S., when dealing with cross-border infringement cases, most sellers choose to settle rather than respond to lawsuits. The primary reason is the high cost of litigation; U.S. lawyers typically charge by the hour (some also charge based on a percentage of the unfrozen funds), making the cost of appearing in court potentially higher than settling. Whether to respond to a lawsuit or not ultimately depends on the extent of the potential loss. Sellers need to comprehensively analyze their situation, weigh the pros and cons, and take the most advantageous action to minimize losses.

Minimizing Losses

To minimize losses, having a strong awareness of potential risks is essential. You should closely monitor recent developments in related cases. If you notice any abnormalities in your store's operations or suspect your product might be targeted, stay calm and assess the situation carefully. To reduce losses, you should first minimize your assets. The most crucial step is to lower the account's balance as much as possible. Since there is usually a time gap between the lawsuit filing and the account freeze, taking such measures within this period can significantly reduce losses.

In addition, it is not recommended to settle in advance. First, the process of pre-litigation settlement is very complicated, and without concrete evidence, it is difficult to determine the settlement amount. It is generally hard for both parties to reach a consensus. Second, and most importantly, pre-litigation settlement can act as a catalyst for account freezing. The law firm may not have considered this yet, but if the seller takes the initiative, it directly provides the plaintiff's attorney with a direction for freezing, which could lead to significant losses for the seller. Therefore, pre-litigation settlement is strongly discouraged.

In the end, once your account is frozen, you need to gather and organize information regarding the infringement and the lawsuit documents. Weigh the pros and cons of settlement versus litigation; the ultimate goal is to minimize losses (compensation + legal fees). It is not advisable to make a unilateral decision to choose either settlement or litigation. It is essential to evaluate the situation comprehensively, considering factors like the actual infringement, the extent of infringing sales, the total cost of litigation versus settlement, and the time required. For this, you should consult a professional lawyer who specializes in this area.

In June, with the resumption of production and work in United States, GBC Law Firm has also accelerated the pace of various business procedures, and the speed and frequency of case filing have been much faster than before, and the following 10 cases were issued in just 3 days in June:

- 1874, 伯爵(Piaget): 珠宝、手表等
- 1876, 兰姿(Lance): 皮具
- 1893, 登喜路(Alfred Dunhill): 时装
- 1906, 梵克雅宝(Van Cleef&Arpels): 珠宝、手表等
- 1906, 万宝龙(Montblanc): 钢笔、手表、珠宝、香水等
- 1952, 克罗维(Chloé): 时装
- 1994, Shanghai Tang(上海滩): 时装
- 1995, 罗杰杜彼(Roger Dubus): 手表
- 2000, NET-A-PORTER: 电子商务

Although GBC likes to issue hidden cases, the brands it represents are usually accustomed to placing orders for evidence, so the new brands usually have a round of orders, which can be perceived in advance. According to the feedback of the majority of sellers, the recent GBC order address is usually this:

Of course, there are also many commonly used order addresses in the past, which have been summarized for you before:

The issue of infringement is still based on prevention. Minimize and eliminate high-risk listings in your store.

Recently, GBC has been very fast in obtaining evidence, filing cases, freezing, and settlements, and in view of the fact that the United States courts are about to get on track again, the next TRO issue will be a big challenge for cross-border sellers.

Last night, SellerGuard's TRO settlement lawyers were also lamenting that the processing speed of GBC has suddenly increased a lot!

The brands of the following brands have also begun to protect their rights on the platform, and they may only ask the platforms to be taken off the shelves, or they may initiate a brand case, so everyone should still pay attention to avoiding:

As mentioned in the previous part, the trend of U.S.-related intellectual property litigation of Foshan cross-border e-commerce enterprises is consistent with the overall trend of U.S.-related intellectual property litigation of domestic enterprises, and it has also been in a rapid growth trend since 2015. (Click to view Overseas Intellectual Property Item 3 Analysis of cross-border e-commerce high-frequency intellectual property litigation involving the United States \(above\)).

In the next part, we will further analyze the plaintiffs in the US-related group lawsuits of Foshan cross-border e-commerce enterprises. In group litigation cases, the plaintiffs' litigation objectives and characteristics are different, and the remedies that can be adopted are also emphasized. This article selects three types of plaintiffs involved in group litigation involving Foshan enterprises, namely well-known multinational enterprises, speculative companies, and established industry giants, and takes individual cases as examples to introduce in detail the litigation characteristics, litigation trends, intellectual property rights, and products involved in litigation of these three types of plaintiffs, so as to provide remedies to help enterprises do a good job in risk investigation and improve their response level.

01 Toyota Motor Sales, U.S.A., Inc. Early warning of litigation risks

1 Basic information of the enterprise

Toyota Motor Sales, U.S.A., Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Toyota") is the largest automobile manufacturer and largest industrial company in Japan, headquartered in Aichi Prefecture, Japan.

2 Toyota's trend of initiating IP litigation against cross-border e-commerce companies in the United States

According to Lex-Machina statistics, Toyota has initiated 46 patent lawsuits, 104 trademark lawsuits and 20 copyright lawsuits against cross-border e-commerce companies in the United States. In recent years, the number of patent and copyright litigation has been low, and the average annual litigation volume has remained less than 5. In 2022, the number of trademark lawsuits surged to 19.

Toyota initiated a total of 21 group lawsuits against cross-border e-commerce companies, all of which were filed in N.D.Ill. (U.S. District Court for the Northern District of Illinois, United States). In the 13 cases that have been concluded, the defendants who have been sentenced in default are required to pay damages ranging from $500,000 to US$500,000, and the results of the court awards in the closed cases are shown in table 1.

Toyota's main products involved in the group lawsuit in the United States are mainly auto parts, and some involve clothing. Figures 14 and 15 show pictures of some of the products involved in the litigation, but are not limited to. In Figure 14, the accused products and product descriptions use the trademarks "TOYOTA" and "RAV4". In Figures 2 and 3, the trademark "TOYOTA" is used in the description of the accused products.

5 Collaboration with the law firms Greer, Burns & Crain

After searching, Toyota's cooperation law firm in initiating a group lawsuit against cross-border e-commerce enterprises in the United States is Greer, Burns & Crain Law Firm (hereinafter referred to as "GBC Law Firm"), and the cooperation between the two parties began in 2022, after establishing cooperation with Greer, Burns & Crain, Toyota began to initiate a group lawsuit against cross-border e-commerce enterprises, from a certain point of view, GBC Law Firm promoted Toyota's pace of rights protection in the field of cross-border e-commerce.

6 Remedies

It can be basically seen from the above-mentioned products involved in the lawsuit that the defendant is sued for "famous brands" is relatively common, and it is recommended that the relevant defendant enterprises actively settle and do a good job of risk investigation in the subsequent product sales to avoid the risk of infringement. If the accused trademark is used as a non-trademark in the product introduction, such as the use of "for TOYOTA" in the product description, you can try to negotiate with the plaintiff's law firm to explain the reasons for non-infringement and persuade the other party to withdraw the lawsuit.

D2 Yangzhou Okus Trading Co., Ltd. Early warning of litigation risks

1 Basic information of the enterprise

Yangzhou Okus Trading Co., Ltd. (hereinafter referred to as "Okus") is a domestic import and export trading company, which was registered and established in Yangzhou City, Jiangsu Province on February 25, 2021.

2 Aukus's Litigation Trends

In 2022-2023, Aukus initiated two class action cases in the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Florida in United States:

In February 2022, Aukus used the trademark "Sirenhead" to initiate a United States trademark infringement lawsuit against 38 cross-border e-commerce companies. On December 5, 2022, the court awarded $200,000 in damages for each of the absentee defendants.

In January 2023, the Aukus "Sirenhead" trademark once again launched a United States trademark infringement lawsuit against 114 cross-border e-commerce enterprises, and the case has not yet been concluded. Aukus has a strong tendency to further initiate trademark litigation in the United States.

3 AUKUS is a registered trademark in the United States

On the official website of the United States Patent and Trademark Office, the information on the registered trademarks of Aukus in the United States is shown in Table 3.

序号	注册号	商标标识	申请日	尼斯分类	产品
1	97792617	GARTEN OF BANBAN	2023.2.13	28	玩具类
2	97432818	sirenhead	2022.3.27	25	服饰类
3	97419838	JUNIMO	2022.5.19	25	玩具类
4	90723187	sirenhead	2021.3.20	28	玩具类
5	90569515	ORCUCCI	2021.3.9	25	服饰类

Table 3: Aukus' registered trademarks in the United States

As can be seen from the above table, the earliest United States trademark application date for Aukus is March 9, 2021, that is, 12 days after the establishment of the company, Aukus began to deploy United States trademarks one after another. A further search of its registered trademarks found that the trademarks registered by Aukus were all related to the prior intellectual property rights of others:

The GARTEN OF BANBAN trademark is identical to the United States game GARTEN OF BANBAN; The sirenhead trademark is similar to the fictional character SIREN HEAD (siren head) created by Trevor Henderson in 2018; The JUNIMO trademark is identical to one of the furniture names in the game Stardew Valley, JUNIMO; The ORCUCCI trademark is similar to GUCCI.

If Aukus does not obtain prior IP rights licenses, these trademark rights are not stable.

4 The main products involved in the lawsuit

The products involved in the lawsuit are mainly SIREN HEAD dolls, and the seller's use of the word "siren head" in the product description is considered to be infringing.

5 Represented the law firm Palmer Law Group

Represented Palmer Law Group, a Florida-based law firm, in two lawsuits initiated by Aukus. Since 2021, the number of IP litigation representations has increased year by year, with 81% (17) of the cases being filed by Chinese enterprises or individuals.

6 Remedies

Due to the unstable intellectual property rights of Aukus in the United States, the enterprise involved in the lawsuit can try to remove the trademark involved in the lawsuit through invalidation proceedings to resolve the infringement dispute. However, due to the high cost of initiating the procedure, it is recommended that the relevant enterprises jointly respond and share the response costs.

For cases represented by Palmer Law Group, if the plaintiff is a domestic enterprise or individual, it is recommended that the defendant contact the plaintiff and assist in settlement through the local branch of the overseas intellectual property dispute response guidance center where the plaintiff is located.

WHAM-O HOLDING, LTD. Early warning of litigation risks

1 Basic information of the enterprise

Founded in 1948 and headquartered in Emeryville, California, United States, WHAM-O HOLDING, LTD. (hereinafter referred to as "Willmeer") is a well-known youth outdoor toy company.

2 Litigation status and trends

In recent years, WITTO has initiated a total of 76 lawsuits, including 3 patent infringement lawsuits and 73 trademark infringement lawsuits. Of the 40 cases that have been closed, 28 have been closed by default judgement of the accused and 12 by settlement. Since 2021, the number of lawsuits initiated by Vivo has increased rapidly, and all of them are mass trademark infringement lawsuits against cross-border e-commerce, of which 98% of the cases are filed in the federal district court for the northern district of Illinois.

4 The main products involved in the lawsuit

VERMEER MAINLY FILED LAWSUITS AGAINST HULA HOOPS, FRISBEES, SLIDES, ETC., AND THE DEFENDANTS GENERALLY USED WORDS SUCH AS HULA HOOP, FRISBEE, AND SLIP'N SLIDE WHEN INTRODUCING PRODUCTS.

Figure 3: Vermeer's products in the lawsuit has introduced a group keyword, such as 'Hula Hoop', to the product introduction.

5 Remedies

In the lawsuit initiated by WITTAD, the company involved in the case can try to defend that the use of hula-hoop, frisbee, slide, etc. in the details of the product introduction in English translations HULA-HOOP, FRISBEE, SLIP'N SLIDE, etc., cannot be recognized as trademark use, and that the trademarks HULA-HOOP, FRISBEE, SLIP'N SLIDE and other trademarks have developed into generic names.

Compared with passive relief after litigation, cross-border e-commerce enterprises should do a good job of risk screening before the product is put on the shelf, check whether the keywords in the product introduction use the trademarks registered by Vivo in the United States in Table 4, and search the trademark database of the United States Patent and Trademark Office to avoid using other people's trademarks.

It's the busiest time for cross-border sellers again, and the Double 11 promotion is coming, have you started to sell orders?

Tell everyone the good news first, and then the bad news. The good news is that in the past week, the frequency of new cases issued by law firms has been a little lower, and there have been no new brands with greater influence on the represented brands except for the HSP agent for the minority brand of St. Pauli. The bad news is that the case launched in mid to early October has now been or is about to be frozen, and sellers suspected of being involved in the case should be careful.

Let's take a look at the timeline of law firm cases from October to date summarized by the editor of SellerGuard:

Recently, GBC has been crazy about obtaining evidence to buy Nike brand-related products, and from various indications, the Nike brand has been represented as a real hammer:

The big-name Nike was represented by GBC Law Firm, what should I do? The Lawyer's Authoritative Self-Help Guide!

Of course, GBC, which has always been good at purchasing evidence, has recently purchased not only Nike products, but also the following brands that have been more familiar with the case, because the cross-border infringement situation can be described as a wildfire that cannot be burned out, and the spring breeze blows again, so GBC has to continue to collect evidence and sue a brand.

GBC represented GMC in trademark prote Case No. 2024-cv-01642

Case No. 2024-cv-01642
Time of indictment: February 27, 2024

Plaintiff's Firm: GBC
Plaintiff: General Motors LLC

Reason for infringement: Trademark infringement

Brand introduction:

General Motors LLC (often abbreviated as GM) is a globally renowned automobile manufacturing company. Headquartered in Detroit, United States, it is one of the largest automakers in the world. GM manufactures and sells various types of vehicles, including passenger cars, trucks, SUVs, and electric vehicles.

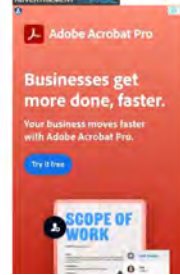

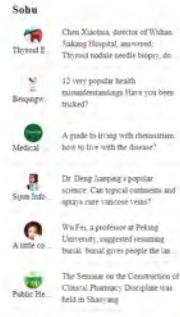

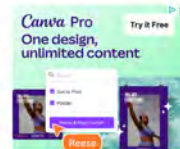

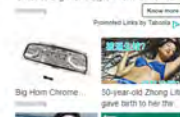

As a long-established car company, GM owns several well-known car brands, including Chevrolet, Buick, Dodge, Cadillac, Opel, and others.

21. Plaintiff owns and registrations of the Olympic Trademarks contain trademark rights in the Olympic Trademarks that are subject to enforcement under the Trademark Act and the Lanham Act.

22. Plaintiff's brand, controlled by the Olympic Trademarks, is a recognized symbol of high quality merchandise. The Olympic Trademarks are distinctive and identify the merchandise as goods from the Plaintiff. The registrations for the Olympic Trademarks contain prior force evidence of their validity and of Plaintiff's exclusive right to use the Olympic Trademarks pursuant to 15 U.S.C. § 1057(b).

23. The Olympic Trademarks have been continuously used and never abandoned.

24. Plaintiff has expended substantial time, money, and other resources in developing, advertising, and otherwise promoting the Olympic Trademarks. As a result, products bearing the Olympic Trademarks are widely recognized and exclusively associated by consumers, the public, and the media as being products owned from Plaintiff.

数月前，我们接到了由合作方主动发起的接洽，表达了积极的合作意愿。于是双方达成合作，预计在9月9日展开联动。然而自7月19日起，我们关注到社交平台陆续出现素材外泄和不实信息无序传播等情况。我们紧急联络合作方，合作方积极配合进行事件调查，但其供应商的外泄事件依然持续发生，舆论持续发酵，玩家受到打扰。

我们希望保护《时空中的绘旅人》中的角色，也希望让各位小画家拥有良好的游戏内外体验。合作方与其供应商的追责问题，不应由我们的玩家承担。经由内部多次讨论，并与合作方友好协商后，我们决定停止该联动项目的合作。

对于我们而言，只有自己玩家的游戏内外体验才是真正重要的。再度向各位小画家致以深深的歉意！我们后续也会在内外活动中投入更多精力，更谨慎地处理联动合作情况，让大家看见我们为大家提供服务的真心实意。

GBC INTRODUCTION

front page / GBC Introduction

- What is GBC?

GBC is an American law firm with the full name Greer Burns & Crain Ltd. The company name is composed of the surnames of the three partner lawyers. It is located in Chicago, USA (Chicago is in Illinois). It specializes in helping brand owners fight various intellectual property lawsuits and is notorious among Chinese sellers.

- Why does GBC buy my products?

GBC will protect the rights of many brands. They buy your products because they think you are infringing on their rights.

- Brother Zhi, how do you know that GBC bought my product?

I have a group SellerDefense: 295380184, many people in it will report GBC buyer ID, through the buyer ID can find out who has left a review for these IDs, what products have been reviewed, and then I will find you. I keep updating this list on this website: GBC->Purchase Dynamics.

- Which brands does GBC protect rights for?

Here is a list: <http://www.ebaymaster.cn/?p=1617>

- What are the consequences if GBC buys my products?

After a few days or months, your PayPal account will be frozen and you will receive two letters: one from GBC saying that you have infringed your rights and that they have sued you in Illinois and that you need to respond to the lawsuit; the other email is from PayPal saying that they have received an order from the court to freeze your account and your funds.

- How long will it take GBC to sue me?

Historical experience shows that there is no definite time point, which may be a few days or months after the purchase. When you learn that GBC has purchased your product, make preparations early.

- A GBC account purchased my item. Can I still use my PayPal account?

Everything is normal before GBC sues you. If they sue you, GBC will notify Paypal to freeze your account, so be prepared from now on. If you want to settle, leave 1,000USD in it and then post a new Paypal account. If you do not settle, all the money will be withdrawn, but your eBay account will be unusable.

- GBC only sued my PayPal? Will there be any problems if I associate PayPal?

According to current understanding, GBC will only sue the PayPal that purchased the product, and the associated PayPal will be fine. However, there is a situation that PayPal will review the case internally after receiving it from GBC and may freeze the associated account.

- My product is authorized, I am not afraid of GBC!

Do you know whether you have authorized GBC? If you have authorized, after they sue you, you can write to GBC and send your authorization letter. If GBC approves, they will withdraw the lawsuit; if not, you need to find a lawyer to negotiate with them.

- GBC bought my product, is it okay if I don't ship it?

When GBC purchases your product, they will take screenshots, so even if you don't ship the product, they can still sue you. However, if you don't ship the product, they won't be able to get the physical evidence, which will be beneficial for subsequent settlement or defense.

- If I don't ship the goods, can I get a refund?

Same as above, they have already taken screenshots when purchasing, and with the screenshots they can sue you.

- What should I do if my Paypal account is blocked?

There are 3 ways to deal with it: give up, defend the lawsuit or settle

- Which treatment method should I choose?

Whether you want to respond to the lawsuit or reach a settlement, you need to hire an American lawyer and pay fees, at least 2,000 RMB. If you have very little money in your Paypal and your Paypal account is permanently frozen, and your eBay account no longer sells things, it will not have a big impact on you, so you can choose to give up; if you want to restore your Paypal account, you must settle or respond to the lawsuit.

- I heard that being sued by GBC only affects Paypal and not eBay?

Yes, GBC is only interested in your money. They only ask the court to freeze your Paypal account. Generally, your eBay account will not be affected (of course, sometimes eBay will review and freeze your eBay account if it finds that your infringement is serious). However, because the Paypal account has been frozen, if you continue to do business, the money will flow into the frozen Paypal account.

- Can I switch to Paypal and continue selling?

You can change it, but if you do not settle or respond to the lawsuit, your case will be executed as a default judgment after 21 days, you will lose the case, and GBC reserves the right to punish you in the future. They will then buy a clean item from your account, obtain your new Paypal, and then freeze your new Paypal. We call this a secondary freeze.

- What will happen if I give up?

My eBay account is no longer usable.

GBC asks the court to freeze your PayPal account. Generally, eBay accounts will not be blocked, but if you do not respond to the lawsuit or reach a settlement and directly give up, GBC reserves the right to pursue the eBay account. They will buy regular products again every once in a while, obtain your new PayPal, and then freeze your new PayPal.

- Is it effective for other sites to block the US from preventing GBC?

It works. To purchase from GBC, first register a new ID, fill in the address, which should be a US address, and then search. If your listing blocks the US, under normal circumstances, GBC will not be able to see it and will not be able to buy your product.

But there is a possibility, that is, GBC first uses a UK address, for example, and then searches, and can see a lot of things, and then finds your product, but he still cannot buy it unless it is actually sent to the UK. We have not discovered this situation yet.

Therefore, as far as I know, blocking US anti-GBC on other sites is effective.

- So can I avoid being sued by GBC a second time if I change the name of my store?

No, you can still find your store through the old one even if you change the name. Try it if you don't believe me.

- What should I do if I want to restore my account and continue doing business after it is bought by GBC?

When the purchased PayPal account accumulates 1500-2000USD, bind all eBay listings to the new PayPal. When GBC sues you, find a lawyer to settle.

- Why do I need to keep so much money in my old account? Can I withdraw the money and then find a lawyer?

If you have very little money in your account, GBC will either not settle with you (ignore you, even if you find a lawyer), or make a very high demand, such as 10,000 USD for settlement, and you can only find a lawyer to settle if you keep 1,500-2,000 USD.

- What is the minimum amount that GBC leaves for a settlement with PayPal?

Generally, it costs 1000USD, because if you only have 100USD, GBC will not spend energy on settlement. Even if your lawyer urges GBC to settle, GBC will set a very high condition, such as 10,000USD. In the end, you usually have to remit several thousand dollars (such as 3000USD or 5000USD) to them for settlement.

- I just sold a product for 0.99USD, why should I have to pay so much compensation?

First of all, everyone must be clear that the amount of your compensation has nothing to do with how much you sold the product for, but it has everything to do with whether you infringed on others' rights. If you infringed on others' rights, according to US law, you should be able to ask for more compensation, so GBC wants the money in your entire account; if you can prove that you did not infringe on others' rights (you did not infringe on others' rights at all or the product was purchased from a regular channel and there is an invoice to prove it), then GBC will release you unconditionally.

- Is it expensive to hire a lawyer?

The quality of lawyers varies greatly nowadays, but generally the minimum fee is 2000 RMB. If you have 2000 USD frozen, the final result is that the 2000 USD will be given to GBC, you will give the lawyer 2000+ RMB, and then your Paypal account will be kept.

- Can I continue to use PayPal after the settlement?

After GBC withdraws the lawsuit, PayPal will conduct a second review of your account, which may prevent you from continuing to use PayPal. Therefore, it is still possible that your PayPal account will be permanently frozen and unusable after the settlement.

The standards for PayPal's review should be a very subjective judgment of their security department. For example, if your business is very small, they will ask you to get out. If your business is larger, they will say, "Baby, don't be afraid, be brave and strong, and pay attention next time, your account will be restored!"

- GBC is fucking rogue, what do you think, Brother Zhi?

GBC is a rogue law firm. Many people call it a rogue law firm and are very angry about it. I think the most fundamental thing is that sellers should improve their awareness of intellectual property rights, keep learning, and not rely on luck.

- Is there any way to sell counterfeit goods without being detected?

Selling at the gate of the community ;)
